1. Scope of processing and type of data

This data protection information informs you about the processing of your personal data that we process in connection with your participation in the event. Your personal data will be processed in compliance with the applicable data protection regulations. According to Art. 4 No. 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), personal data is any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person.

2. Purpose of data processing

Your personal data will be processed for the following purposes:

1. Sending an association newsletter of the German Society for Biomaterials (DGBM) to inform about future events by e-mail

2.1 Newsletter registration

We collect the following mandatory data as part of the newsletter registration process:

- Last name, first name, e-mail

The data processing takes place on the basis of your registration for the newsletter and is necessary in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. b) GDPR for the purposes mentioned for the fulfillment of the newsletter subscription contract and for the implementation of pre-contractual measures.

We will use your e-mail address to you the newsletter of the German Society for Biomaterials (DGBM) on internal association events by e-mail in the future if you have expressly consented to such use and we have informed you of your right to object to this use at any time. In these cases, we will use your e-mail address together with your first and last name in order to be able to address you accordingly.

If the data are no longer required for the fulfillment of the aforementioned purposes, they are regularly deleted, unless their temporary further processing is necessary (intervention of legal retention periods). If the data processing is based on consent, we will erase the personal data concerned if you withdraw your consent and no other legal basis applies. If the data processing is based on our legitimate interest, we will erase the personal data concerned if you have objected to the data processing.

3. Disclosure of data to third parties

3.1 Newsletter mailing

Your data will only be passed on to third parties if this is legally permissible and necessary for the processing of the contractual relationship with you. The data passed on may only be used by the third party for the stated purposes. As the association newsletter is sent by the German Society for Biomaterials (DGBM e.V.), the data will be forwarded to:

German Society for Biomaterials (DGBM e.V.)

4. Rights of data subjects

Data subjects may at any time request information about the personal data concerning them and, if necessary, rectification or erasure or restriction of processing or object to processing. There is also a right to data portability in their favor. In addition, if data processing is carried out on the basis of consent, this consent can be revoked at any time for the future. To exercise your rights, please contact our data protection officer using the contact details above.

5. Right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority:

Pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, every data subject has the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority if it is suspected that the processing of personal data is unlawful.
